Remunerative Price for Groundnut

1335. SHRI BACHANILEKHRAJ: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that groundnut growers in Gujarat and some other States are not getting remunerative price for their produce;

(b) if so, the details thereof during the last two years, togetherwith the reasons therefor; and

(c) the remedial action proposed by Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI HUKUMDEO NARAYAN YADAV): (a) to (c) In order to give remunerative prices to the groundnut growers, the Government had fixed Minimum Support Price (MSP) for Groundnut Pods of Fair Average Quality (FAQ) for 2000 and 2001 season at Rs. 1220 per quintal and Rs. 1340 per quintal respectively. The National Agricultural Co-operative Marketing Federation of India Ltd. (NAFED), a Central Nodal Agency was directed to undertake price support operations if prices touch MSP level. The market prices of groundnut pods during 2000 in the State of Gujarat ruled above MSP, as such no pruchases were required under the Scheme. However, at certain places in the States of Andhra Pradesh, Kamataka and Orissa prices ruled below MSP and accordingly market intervention was undertaken by NAFED. During 2001 also, as the market prices of groundnut pods, ruled below MSP in certain areas including in the state of Gujarat, NAFED through its cooperative network procured a quantity of 1,62,738 tonnes of groundnut pods as on 16.2.2002. Procurement was suspended after 31.1.2002 in states like Gujarat, Rajasthan
